

FEATURE FILM SHOOTING IN PATCHOGUE

New York based movie crew is coming to town to shoot a feature film, SPLINTERHEADS. Splinterheads is an action packed romantic comedy which tells the story of Justin Frost, a slacker whose world is turned upside down when he falls for Galaxy, a sexy and free-spirited con artist who works for a traveling carnival. This is the second film for Writer and Director, Brant Serson. Serson's first film, "Blackballed: The Bobby Dukes Story" was an award winning comedy starring Rob Corddry, Paul Scheer, and Jack McBrayer.

We are looking for donations, sponsorship and product placement from local businesses. In exchange we can offer a credit in the film or advertising by featuring your business in the movie.

We will also be looking for background actors to be in the movie.

If interested please contact the Production Coordinator, Elizabeth Garrett at egarrettnyc@gmail.com.
